

SEVENTH DAY
(Wednesday, June 13, 1984)

The Senate met at 9:30 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Senator Jones.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Blake, Brooks, Brown, Caperton, Doggett, Edwards, Farabee, Glasgow, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Jones, Kothmann, Leedom, Lyon, Mauzy, McFarland, Montford, Parker, Parmer, Santiesteban, Sarpalius, Sharp, Sims, Traeger, Truan, Uribe, Vale, Washington, Whitmire, Williams.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Chuck Meyer, Chaplain and Director of Pastoral Care, St. David's Hospital, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

Lord God of change and openness, we thank You for this new day which was not promised to us. We who are in positions of power and influence ask You to teach us the meaning of power and show us where to use our influence for those who are powerless in our State. As we struggle with issues that will determine the future of the next generation of Texas children, help us not to be intimidated into doing that which is safe and politically expedient. Give us courage instead to speak clearly for that which is fair and right. Be with us in our deliberations, keep us mindful that we are called to serve, and keep us humble with Your gentle laughter in our midst. Amen.

(President in Chair)

On motion of Senator Mauzy and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
